Sanctorale

Each Ordinariate should keep its Titular Solemnity, where appropriate, and its Patronal Feast with suitable dignity. In the American Ordinariate, the Chair of Saint Peter (February 22) is kept as a Solemnity, while Our Lady of Walsingham (September 24) is observed as a Feast.

The external solemnity of any feast means the celebration of the feast without an office, for the good of the faithful, either on the day on which the feast is impeded, or on a Sunday when the feast occurs during the week, or on some other established day. This convention is sometimes applied to the celebration of Epiphany, Candlemas, the Ascension, Corpus Christi, the Sacred Heart, and All Saints. It may also be applied to the feast of a duly constituted principal patron, the anniversary of the dedication of the church in which the Mass is said, the titular feast of the church itself, the titular feast of the order or congregation, the feast of the holy founder of the order or congregation, and solemnities which are celebrated with an especially large attendance by the faithful (of this matter the local ordinary is the judge).

The Proper Calendar of Saints' and Holy Days for the Ordinariate of the Chair of Saint Peter follows the National Calendar approved for the United States, with the following additions and modifications (pertaining either to the saints and blessed commemorated or to the rank of the commemorations). In the complete Sanctoral Calendar that follows, these additions and modifications are indicated in red type:
